Making 2026 a Success

As we enter 2026, we do so with a spirit of optimism, always balanced with a touch of realism. We wanted to share some thoughts and support as you plan for the year ahead.

There's no question that independent catering businesses continue to face real challenges, which makes increasing margin and profitability more important than ever.

The operators who will thrive are those who reach out to new audiences by adapting their menus to meet fast-moving food trends, from loaded fries and wings, to spice bags, burgers and more.

Social media has made it incredibly easy to see how other food businesses innovate and engage their customers - it's a world full of inspiration. Younger team members often have natural digital talent, especially when it comes to content creation. If you've got home-grown talent in-house, why not encourage them to enter the Amanda Seafood Content Creator Award on page 19?

It could be the start of something big.

Celebrating talent takes centre stage at the National Fish & Chip Awards on Wednesday 25th February in London, where we're proud sponsors of the Best Takeaway and Best Restaurant categories. Tickets are available at thefishandchipawards.com.

And with the Fry Magazine Top 50

set to be announced in early January, there's fantastic media exposure ahead for the Top 50 Takeaways and Top 10 Restaurants.

There are so many ways to raise the profile of your business and entering an award is a good choice. If you'd like to chat about which awards might be right for you, just drop us a line at marketing@colbeck.co.uk, and we'll call you right back.

Douglas & Georgina Colbeck

ANDREW CROOK
PRESIDENT OF THE NFFF

'Having been a member of the NFFF since 1980 I could not contemplate not being a member, the benefits far outweigh the small cost of membership and during the covid outbreak their advice was so invaluable.

I would recommend any shop to join as being part of a Federation makes you feel like being part of something important rather than just an individual shop struggling on your own'

NIGEL DERRET Newington Fish Bar, Ramsgate

Are you or your teams TikTok or Insta masters?

555 Amanda Seafoods, proud suppliers of award-winning cod roe to fish and chip shops across the UK, have launched 'The Chip Shop Creator Awards' - a fun, free way to grow your socials and get your team involved!

Here's how it works

They'll send you a FREE sample product (no catch - literally!)

Your team creates a short video - it could be a recipe, taste test, skit, or something totally unique! The more creative, the better! Need ideas?

Here are a few things your team could film:

- Behind the scenes: Someone prepping cod roe or salmon roulade in the kitchen – show off the sizzle!
- Taste test: Get someone to try it on camera and give their honest reaction (the bigger the reaction, the better)
- Voiceovers: Show the cooking process with a funny or dramatic voiceover.
- Recipe hack: Turn cod roe into fishcakes, a butty, or a fancy loaded chip box – and show how it's done.
- Comedy skit: Got a joker on the team? Let them go wild with a cheeky "cod roe changed my life" moment.

Post it on Instagram in collaboration with us or TikTok or Facebook tagging us:
